

STUDENT ASSISTANT SUSTAINABILITY

Normann Copenhagen is a design-driven furniture and home accessories company based in central Copenhagen, with around 80 employees worldwide and 35 at our headquarters. We are looking to strengthen our sustainability efforts with a motivated and proactive student assistant.

Are you passionate about sustainability and eager to gain practical experience while studying? Join us to support our Sustainability and Compliance Manager in meaningful environmental work within a leading Danish furniture company.

JOB DESCRIPTION:

As a student assistant, you will support sustainability and compliance initiatives and help ensure accurate product data and documentation. A key task will be assisting with Life Cycle Assessments (LCAs) to evaluate the environmental impact of our products. You'll work closely with the Sustainability and Compliance Manager on a variety of practical and administrative tasks. The position is approximately 10 hours per week, with flexibility around your academic schedule.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assist in conducting Life Cycle Assessments (LCAs) across our product range.
- Support day-to-day sustainability and compliance tasks.
- Maintain and update product data and documentation.
- Respond to supplier and customer inquiries related to sustainability and compliance.
- Contribute to internal and external sustainability reporting.

ABOUT YOU:

- Studying sustainability, environmental science, engineering, or a related field, with at least two years remaining in your studies.
- Familiar with LCAs or eager to learn.
- Structured and analytical mindset and comfortable working with data and documentation.
- Able to work independently and take initiative.
- Clear communicator in English (Danish is a plus).
- Curious, proactive, and willing to learn.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- A flexible student role with real responsibility.
- Insight into sustainability and compliance in the design industry.
- A great working atmosphere with skilled colleagues and an informal tone.

Please submit your application and CV (both in English) to tsp@normann-copenhagen.com

Interviews will be held on an ongoing basis, so please send your application as soon as possible.
